If the shares are held at Computershare, or a similar third-party agent, contact them and make sure the shares are DRS eligible. Please send an email to scott.ward@wfadvisors.com with your full name and phone number. Scott will call you first, send you a secure email to reply to him with a recent statement. He will then send a pre-filled form by email or FedEx, which must be signed in front of a notary. Alternatively, you can transfer the shares from the third-party agent to a brokerage account and follow the method listed above to gift shares.
